

Financial Assist

If you have questions about a financial issue, speaking with an expert can help. The Intermountain Employee Assistance Program provides you with access to professionals who provide free consultations on everything from credit and debt, to purchasing a home, or saving for retirement.

Why use Intermountain EAP Financial Assist?

- Bankruptcy counseling
- Budgeting (to cope with reduction in household earnings; to reduce debt; to save; household budgeting)
- Buying a home for the first time
- College fund planning
- Credit card debt (lowering rates; consolidating debt)
- Foreclosure prevention
- Identity theft prevention
- Major life event planning

How It Works

- Call our intake hotline between 8:00 am and 5:00 pm MST at 1-800-832-7733 and tell the agent you'd like to access Financial Assist.
- The financial consultant will schedule an appointment with a qualified financial counselor. You may receive information to review or worksheets to complete before your session.
- On the day of the appointment the counselor will call the employee to begin the session.
- Following the appointment, the counselor will follow up with a summary, goals and/or any other applicable information.

- Real estate

How It Works

- Call our intake hotline between 8:00 am and 5:00 pm MST at 1-800-832-7733 and tell the agent you'd like to access Legal Assist.
- Our agent will connect you with a legal consultant who may be able to help resolve the issue or provide the needed resources. If not...
- The legal consultant will schedule an appointment with a qualified legal counselor. You will receive a 'Next Steps' email with information about the confirmed time and how to connect for your appointment.

 We are not a law firm or lawyer referral service and do not provide legal advice, but we can connect you with a participating lawyer in your area who can assist you.*
